You have the right to cancel and return this policy or cover section of the policy by notifying Us in writing within 30 days of the date it was issued to You (“cooling off period”), unless You make or are entitled to make a claim under the policy within the cooling off period. If You cancel it in this time, We will return the amount You have paid.

In addition, If You varied Your policy and added a cover section, You have the right to cancel that cover section within 30 days of the date it was added by notifying Us in writing (“additional cooling off period”) unless You make a claim or are entitled to make a claim under that cover section within the additional cooling off period. If it is cancelled in this time, We will return the amount You have paid for that section.

DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Before You enter into a contract of general insurance with Us, You have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth), to disclose to Us every matter that You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to Our decision whether to accept the risk of insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to Us before You renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

It includes matters We specifically ask about when You apply for a policy, or renew, or alter Your policy, and any other matters which might affect whether We insure You and on what terms.

The information You tell Us can affect:

- the amount of Your premium and Your Excess;
- if We will insure You;
- if special conditions will apply to Your policy.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of any matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by Us;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that We know or, in the ordinary course of Our business, ought to know;
- in respect of which We have waived Your duty.

If You fail to comply with Your duty of disclosure We may be entitled to reduce Our liability under the policy in respect of a claim, or, may cancel the policy. If Your non-disclosure is fraudulent, We may also have the option of avoiding the policy from its beginning.

THE GOODS AND SERVICES TAX (GST) AND YOUR INSURANCE

GST refers to the goods and services tax which is the subject of A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cth).

The premium on this policy includes an amount for GST and if We pay a claim Your GST status may determine the amount to be paid on the claim.

You must advise Us if You are registered, or required to be registered, for GST purposes, and You must when requested tell Us what Your entitlement to Input Tax Credits (ITCs) is for Your insurance premium.

When determining the amount to be paid for a claim under this policy, any payment or supply We make to You for the acquisition of goods, services or other supply (or monetary compensation in lieu thereof) or otherwise for Your claim will be calculated on the GST inclusive cost of Your claim. In calculating such payment, We are entitled to reduce it by any ITC to which You are, or would be, entitled:

- for the acquisition of such goods, services or other supply; or
- if the payment had been used to acquire such goods, services or other supply.

However, the total of all payments We make will not exceed the Sum Insured, limit or sub limit of liability, or other monetary limitation imposed or created by the policy.

The Sum(s) Insured, limits and/or sub limits of liability, or any other monetary limitations are inclusive of any taxes, levies, duties or charges that the payment would be affected by or subject to.

If You make a claim and We are obliged by law to withhold any amount from the payment in order to satisfy that law (for example, because You have not provided Your ABN where required to do so), the amount withheld will be treated as forming part of the claim payment paid under this policy (even though You have not received the withheld amount).
